Election Winners Take Office

RESOLUTION SEEKS URBAN VOICE IN STATUS CHANGES

At the last regular meeting of Town Council a resolution concerning annexation proceedures was passed and will be presented at the Union of Alberta Municipalities Association annual convention in Lethbridge later this month.

The council is concerned about the fact that towns in an area have no voice in municipal status changes although they are very much interested in the surrounding rural area.

The resolution was prompted by the recent annexation of LID 77, which surrounds the Town of Drayton Valley, by the Municipal District of Stony Plain. Although opposed to the annexation there was no legal channel for the town to follow to have its representation bear any weight.

The Town's resolution calling for amendments to the County Act is worded as follows: WHEREAS Urban Centres are very much concerned and affected by changes in the Municipal status of the rural areas in their vicinity; AND WHEREAS urban centres set up their marketing, cultural and servicing policies to suit the rural area adjacent to them; AND WHEREAS the provisions of the County Act do not permit any interference or direction from the urban centre when the adjacent rural area somes in for a municipal status change; NOW THEREFORE be it resolved that this convention urge the Provincial Government to amend the County Act and such other acts pertinent to municipal status so that urban centres adjacent to those rural areas being affected by municipal status change be given the power and authority to voice objection and/or recommendation regarding the proposed change of municipal status in much the same manner that adjacent property owners can deny changes to zoning classifications, and on the basis of reasonable and pertinent argument have their objections and/or recommendations stand."

Marvin Helm, Tom Johnson Win Election

Two hundred and twenty-five of the nearly 1,000 elegible Drayton Valley voters turned out at the poll Wednesday, October 16th to elect Marvin Helm and Tom Johnson to the Town Council.

Mr. Helm led the poll with 152 votes, ten more than Mr. Johnson's 142. Mr. Ken Machan polled 122 votes.

Mrs. Elizabeth McGee and and Mr. Roman Kowel were elected trustees of the R.C. Separate School District No. 111. Mrs. McGee led the poll with 39 votes followed by Mr. Kowal with 35 and Mr. Hubert Demers with 20.

SKATING STARTED

Following several days of ice-making the Drayton Valley Centennial Arena was opened to public skating on Tuesday, October 22nd to mark a new early opening date.

For the balance of this week the arena will be open to public skating from 2:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. daily. The cashier will be on duty during this time for the sale of season tickets.

Recreation Director, Mike Gormley expects to have the regular winter schedule set up and operating about November 1st.

Road Improvement Sought by Council

Following several accidents and deaths on the stretch of Highway 57 between Drayton Valley and the Easyford-Rocky Rapids intersection, Town Council of Drayton Valley has approached the Department of Highways with a request for improvements to the road.

In the past year there have been three fatal accidents on the stretch of highway and several near misses.

Council is quite concerned about the recurring accidents and believe they are due partly to the narrowness of the roadway and the absence of shoulders that might provide a means for a vehicle to avoid a possible accident.

Council, in a letter to the department, has requested widening of the five mile stretch to provide parking if required or space for emergency passing.

John Braybrook Wins Rotary Lethbridge Trip

Three high school contestants took part in a public speaking contest at a recent meeting of the Drayton Valley Rotary Club to decide the winner of a trip to Lethbridge.

The annual event is sponsored by the Lethbridge Rotary Club under the name of "Something for Young Minds." During the three day conference young people from across the province take part in discussions and studies and enjoy a recreational program as guests of the host club.

Taking part in the Drayton Valley competition were Judy Romanchuk, Chester Rosenberger and John Braybrook speaking on the topic "The Value or Otherwise of Service Clubs in a Community." The talks were from three to five minutes duration.

After considerable deliberation the judges decided the winner was John Braybrook. He will leave here Wednesday for the Lethbridge conference on October 24th, 25th and 26th.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The Pollution Problem

Man's activities are polluting this country's waterways. What are you, as an individual and private citizen, doing about it? There is no escaping the accusation that, through his living and working activities, man is responsible for the condition of our streams today. Shall we continue to pour out our noxious and inadequately purified wastes from homes, industries, agriculture and the many other sources or are we sufficiently energized to call a halt to this needless degradation of our natural resources? The ultimate decision is yours --each and everyone.

The technical experts have given us the information needed for action. Conferences, such as the Canadian Institute of Pollution Control at Hamilton on October 21st-23rd, bring together the specialists in the field of water resources management. They enhance their knowledge and exchange views and the latest data on the intricacies of controlling water pollution. They have accumulated much information, adequate to guide the public and elected officials in their decisions.

But of what use is technical information if it is not put to practice? We have a fund of expert knowledge and capable people in Canada, even if there is still need for research on many problems. We cannot wait until all these procedures are worked out in minute detail, but we must act to control these wastes by the means now available.

Public support for pollution control programs is the key to success. These involve the sanction of expenditures for wastewater treatment, and a willingness to assume one's share of leadership. All too frequently lack of interest prevails where works for this purpose are involved. They are accordingly delayed, the cost increases, and the streams become more objectionable.

What can each of us do to protect our water courses and ensure an environment that will be safe and habitable? We can inquire about what steps are necessary . We can support, and demand action from our elected officials. Enthusiasm is needed if we are to safeguard our natural environment. There is no time to delay. Let the technical experts decide on the details, but let all of us act in the development of a sound policy.

The rewards are great. We can erase the high cost to Canadians each year caused by pollution of our waters. But it will only be done if you insist on action.

WORLD UNREST

By Rev. G. E. Ingram

Some people talk and act as though they believe that "life is just one darn thing after another", that events good or bad just impinge on our planet from outer space, perhaps, and are completely fortuitous and meaningless. Human beings, it is supposed, are fodder for blind chance, or helpless before the forces of nature.

Take the unrest in our modern world, for instance: the riots, the violence, war, class rivalry, and racial strife. Do we recognize all this for what it is; or is it altogether incomprehensible? Certainly the issues and reasons behind student unrest, mass riots, race riots, anti-war demonstration, and the like, are complex. To explain it all as Communist subversion is too simplistic; for while, I have no doubt, there is an element of that behind such convulsions, it is alloyed with other elements as well.

It is safe to say, however, that world tension is the macrocosm of the divided self. The woes which beset mankind --and history corroborates this--are engendered by individual selfishness and rebellion. The Bible refers to this as human sin. When we look into our own hearts (if we are ever disposed so to do) we see that which provides the chief clue to society's derangement. No Christian, therefore, can hold up hands of horror and remark: "I don't know what's gotten into people". Such convulsions are the symptoms of the fundamental disease of self-will and pride, i.e., of sin. And the ultimate disintegration of civilization is as sure as night follows day so long as civilization's basic units--individuals--are spiritually schizoid and alienated from God.

What humans seem generally not to learn is that the root of their problem is not the disintegrating system. Humans fail to see that it is not within the power of man to do what he ought to do, to create a just society, to secure civilization against the contradiction of self-will. But let man go on trying and he will discover the truth, which leads to repentance. If man's best is not good enough, then the problem, as far as man is concerned, is settled. The necessary best has to be sought elsewhere--in God, who has already provided it in Christ. This should be the Church's main concern to proclaim in all ages--Why will ye die?

Spartans Here Saturday Against Camrose College

FMHS Spartans will host the Camrose Lutheran College football team in Drayton Valley at the Lions Park at 2:30 Saturday, October 26th. The college squad is returning to Drayton after a lapse of six years when they went home with a 21-17 victory against a team which was probably the finest to be fielded from the local high school.

The present day Spartan squad who have returned to league competition this season after a six year lapse are still going through a difficult rebuilding situation but the Spartan coaching staff believe that this year's group will mature into an excellent football team.

Since the Spartans last outing several players have left the squad, a number of players have been cut and new faces added. The Spartans are looking to sincere and disciplined football talent and with this criteria the squad will be few in number but truly capable.

Some of the extremely fine football talent that is becoming the hard core of this club are Jerry Jevne, Ron Astle, Stan Oulton, Ron Wilson, Rick Gabrielson, Ken Fink, Bob Pattison, Dave Getzinger, Larry Mattoon, Tom Tucker, Don Whelon, John Teeter, Don Bouschard, Bruce Gossel, and Doug Ibbotson. It is also felt that this group is on the verge of crossing the difficult line from defeat to victory and will be representing their school as they should.

The Spartans have decided to go along with the league ruling of using some players from surrounding schools and have added three players to the team from Warburg who will be playing against the Lutheran College in order to adapt themselves to this high caliber of competition so that they will be able to become full team members next season. The players joining the squad are Ron Stevenson, Larry Gedish and Jack Broadbent.

Doug Ibbotson who suffered a cracked bone in his ankle will probably play some defensive half while Jerry Jevne will move into the quarterback position and will be backed up by Don Bartlett. John Teeter will move into the right end position and Don Whelan into right halfback spot. Ron Astle and Stephan Hoge will move into the offensive guard slots while Ron Wilson will take over the centre spot in replacement of injured Pat Kane. Bruce Gossel who joins the team from the local bantams will gradually be worked into a fullback position.

Win or lose the Spartan team intends to let the visiting Camrose team know that they have been in a game and it is sure that local fans should enjoy this one.

LIBRARY NEWS

We wish to thank Mrs. Pickup for her generous donation of used books to the Municipal Library. The books are in good condition and will be useful to us.

John Kennth Galbraith's newest book "The Triumph" has arrived. The story is of a revolution in a mythical Latin American country. Puerto Santos, the scene of the revolution, has been ruled for many years by an aging dictator, whose chief belief is he should bilk the people of his country as much as possible. Wanting to be considered the father of his country, he proceeds in the only way he knows with the aid of a vast collection of mistresses. He is overthrown by a moderate liberal named Miro who introduces modest land reforms and thereby alarms the U.S. govemment. The book is a telling satire and a sobering commentary on American diplomacy and politics.

"A Doctor Among the Addicts" by Nat Hentoff. Dr. Marie Nyswander is the doctor referred to in the book. She works in New York City. A psychiatrist, she spent over two decades exploring the routes by which the addict can again be made a functioning member of society.

"The Long Vaction" by Jules Verne has been re-printed by Oxford University Press and our copy is shelved in the Juvenile Fiction.

Once more may we repeat, the library is housed in the Town Hall and is reached by the east door. Library hours are: Tuesday and Friday, 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. At noon on both days for bus children only. Fees; Adults one dollar for twelve months. The grade three class at the Separate School went out to the Pasteshuk farm to look at some antique machinery and household articles. While the children were at the farm, Freddie Hunt sang some songs and recited some poems for them, and Mrs. Pasteshuk served lunch. I am sure it was a very enjoyable day for everyone there. Mr. Hunt has written many poems and has entertained young and old for many years.

Mrs. Pearl Buzak of Edmonton is out to visit her daughter Marge Pollard. She came out for Marge's birthday on Sunday.

Tomahawk 4-H Clubs Hold Annual Awards Night

Tomahawk 4-H Clothing Club winners, left to right are, Joyce Jouan, Terry Pezzot, and Susan Pezzot. Trophy presentations were made by Mr. Frank Neil, Manager of the Royal Bank in Drayton Valley and Mrs. Marion Jouan, President of the F.W.U.A.

The Tomahawk Community Hall was filled on Friday, October 18th, for the 6th annual banquet and awards night for the 4-H Beef and Clothing Clubs.

After a delicious supper served by the F.W.U.A. those present heard the guest speaker Doug Bienert, a 4-H Regional Specialist, on the topic of 4-H benefits to the community and those taking part in the programs. Mr. Bienert was introduced by Linda Piskunowicz, the M.C.

Mr. Bienert complimented the two local clubs on their activities of the past few years. 4-H, he said, offered much to members as well as trophies and awards and that the opportunity of producing better citizens was its most important goal.

Presentation of awards took place during the evening with Mr. Bienert presenting the T. Eaton Clothing Club Award to Susan Pezzot.

Mr. Frank Neil, manager of the Drayton Valley branch of the Royal Bank, presented Terry Pezzot with the trophy for efficiency winner at the Achievement Day of the 4-H Clothing Club. Efficiency runner-up was Joyce Jouan who received her award from Mrs. Marion Jouan, President of the F.W.U.A.

Beef club awards and trophies were presented to Paul Engstrom, grand champion calf, by Frank Neil; reserve grand champion, the Cormie Ranch trophy presented to Joan Schiedeman by Bill Dunbar; showmanship trophy, to Lucas Piskunowicz, by Mr. G.W. Scheopp; the record keeping trophy, to Linda Piskunowicz, by Mrs. Paris; the efficiency trophy, to Lucas Piskunowicz, by Mr. D. Shadeck; the best first year member trophy, to Rodney Jouan, by Mr. Joe Jouan.

A special event of the evening was the presentation of a plaque to Mr. Earl Lowe, District Agriculturist, for his help to the 4-H Beef Club during past year. Donna Pryor made the presentation to Mr. Lowe.

Lucas Piskunowicz, one of the Alberta winners of a trip to the Royal Winter Fair later this fall, was called on to speak briefly on his activities in the 4-H movement.

Movies were shown to wind-up the evening.

CHAMBER COVERS SEVERAL TOPICS

The Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce Executive meeting held on Thursday, October 17th in the Cardium Room covered many topics of interest to the citizens of Drayton Valley and district.

Mrs. Mary Kublik advised that arrangements were being made to hold a Farm Accounting Course to commence in November with instruction to be conducted by Mr. Don Howarth, Chartered Accountant of Drayton Valley. Anyone interested in more information on this course should contact Mrs. Kublik at Mar Nels Ladies Wear.

With emphasis becoming more and more evident on farm and agricultural interests in this area, it was agreed that every attempt would be made to bring in Agricultural speakers for the regular monthly meetings held in the evening of the first Thursday of each month.

There was considerable discussion relative to the possible opening of a feed lot here and the meeting heartily endorsed thorough investigation of the idea proposed that the November Guest Speaker should be one on this subject.

It was also mentioned that there was an opening for a Fence Post Treating Centre here and the matter is being taken up with the Industrial Development Branch.

A question as to the fate of the Farmer's Market was raised and the meeting was told that due to the lateness of the harvest this year, this idea had not been feasible but that the matter would most definitely be followed up next year.

Recreation Round-Up

By Mike Gormley

HOCKEY COACHES REQUIRED

At this time the Drayton Valley Athletic Association is looking for hockey coaches for the local Minor Hockey program which starts about mid-November. Anyone interested in helping out by coaching any level of Minor Hockey from Mite through Bantam inclusive are invited to submit their names to the Recreation Office at their earliest possible convenience. We need your help in this important youth program.

OFFICIALS NEEDED

We need coaches but what is equally important, we need game officials, referees, and linesmen for our hockey program. Qualified officials were few and far between and men with same qualifications are a necessity all hope to have a smooth operation. Anyone interested in officiating Minor Hockey here during the 1968-69 season is asked to get in touch with Charley Davies, Phone, 542-3997. Charley will be our Referee in Chief for the D.V.A.A. Minor Hockey program this season and will be in charge of all hockey officiating covering the local Minor program. An officials clinic or a series of such clinics will be run locally under the direction of Mr. Davies in order that interested persons may be able to qualify themselves as Minor Hockey officials. We would like to have at least ten or twelve people to work with Charley in this area. This officiating business is a hard job even at the Minor levels and it takes a real dedicated person to get involved. However, we do have people of such dedication in this community and we look to their co-operation and their help without which no phase of our hockey program can function.

WEATHER DELAYS FOOTBALL SCHED.

The inclement weather for the past week has been detremental to the progress of the Minor Football season. Football is supposed to be an all weather sport, however, in this case there was just too much snow, mud and slush and rain for us to progress with the program at the Little Canadian level. We are behind four games in our schedule right now, however, we hope to pick up the lost ground during the next week. To date the weather has cast a shadow over what otherwise has been a very successful and interesting season in the Little Canadian League. The teams have been evenly matched and there have been some real good games to date. Now we might have to hurry it up a bit to complete the season and the playoffs before we run into the hockey season.

OFFICIALS CLINIC

A Hockey Officials Clinic will be held in Edmonton at the Ross Sheppard Composite High School on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 21st, 22nd and 23rd starting at 7:00 p.m. each evening. Charley Davies will be attending the clinic. This clinic offers courses leading to qualifications at different levels in the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association.

Kinettes Plan C.N.I.B. Canvass

A pocket book that talks the latest form of reading material for blind Canadians. Novels, westerns, biographies, and Travelogues, are to be distributed by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, in a miniature form of talking books.

The voice-recorded books will soon be available in casettes 7 inches by 3 inches by 1 inch; small enough to carry in a pocket, or slip in a mail box. The recorded tape contains up to twelve hours of reading when played on a modern reproducer, no larger than a portable typewriter.

The machines and library service are free to blind Canadians, thanks to public support.

An appeal for funds and other CNIB services will be made by The Evansburg Kinette Club, in Evansburg from October 15th to October 30th. Members will canvass the business and residential and surrounding area. Everyone is asked to give generously. Only local citizens solicit funds for CNIB, and each canvasser issues registered receipts.

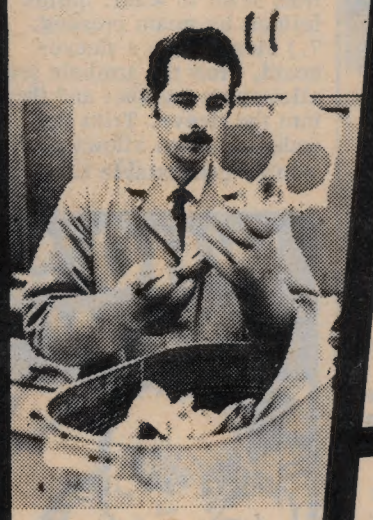
Sundance Clubs Plan Awards Night

An executive meeting of the Sundance 4-H Beef and Garden Clubs took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woods of Seba Beach on Monday, October 14th.

The subject under discussion was the Sundance 4-H Banquet and Awards Night, which will be held on the evening of Saturday, November 16th in the Sundance Hall.

have you ever met...

...a bone boiler?



No, not a cook in a soup kitchen, but a skilled artist working to present an accurate picture of Alberta's bird and animal life: "Bone boiling" is just one of the many facets of the work of Michael Hampson, taxidermist at the Provincial Museum and Archives of Alberta. The boiling comes about when a skeleton requires complete and thorough cleaning for mounting purposes. The process of bone cleaning is actually quite complicated; boiling is one of the simpler steps, this removes the flesh from the bones. The taxidermist's work also entails obtaining and mounting specimens of every living creature found in Alberta, in settings which closely resemble their natural habitats. The Provincial Museum and Archives of Alberta displays artifacts and specimens depicting the human and natural history of Alberta back to the age of the dinosaurs. It is a visual history of our province, a reminder to every Albertan of the past on which our future is constructed.

... a woman whose advice is heeded by other women?

This paragon is Mrs. Irene McGregor, Director of the Women's Cultural and Information Bureau of the Government of Alberta. Just as an example, since the passage of the new divorce bill in the federal government, her office has mailed out over 4,000 copies of the new edition of her booklet "Laws of Interest to Women", which includes a summary of the divorce laws, and every one of these in answer to a specific request. Other publications issued by the Bureau include Fact Sheets on "The Landlord and the Tenant", "Working Women", "Pensions and Social Allowances", "Women on Juries", "Estate Tax Rebate Act", "Women in Canadian Politics", "Alberta Women Pioneers", "Training, Education and Upgrading for Mature Women", and "Bursaries and Scholarships". The Women's Cultural and Information Bureau has also issued a directory of women's organizations in Alberta. The list is added to weekly and hundreds of telephone calls are received and answered daily on subjects ranging from child care to legal rights.

... a first-aid man for ailing communities?

When interest and participation in the life of a community begin to flag, it is time to call in an expert who is able to breathe new life into community activities. Such a man is Randall Meeks who, with his co-workers in the Rural Leadership Training and Development Branch, Extension Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture, offers a three-day course in the development of leadership skills and communication to any community which feels the need for revitalization. Arrangements for place and time are left to a local organization, with the Branch providing personnel and materials for the course. Objectives include making those attending aware of new areas of learning, developing self-confidence in individuals, and the evolvement of competence and efficiency in groups. By encouraging initiative and interest within the community, Rural Leadership Training is providing the opportunity for people-development.

As a scientist in the Dairy and Food Laboratory of the Alberta Department of Agriculture, it is part of Bill Jonasson's duties to detect signs of contamination in food products. The machine into which he is injecting a purified food sample is a Gas Chromatograph, which records the amount of pesticides in foods. So sensitive is this device that it records in parts per billion, in order that not the slightest trace of pesticide may escape discovery. In addition to pesticide testing, the Alberta government's Dairy and Food Laboratory personnel carry out a continuous chemical and bacteriological testing program on milk, butter, eggs and other products, ensuring Albertans of clean, safe, pure foods produced to the highest possible standards.

... an oil well driller who doesn't want to bring in a "gusher"?

Although he works on a full-size, fully operable drill rig, Harvey Luedtke would be a very embarrassed man if he should ever strike oil. Harvey is one of the instructors at the Petroleum Industry Training Centre where the Alberta Department of Education's Vocational Education Division offers four-week courses in the knowledge, skills and safety practices which equip men to become drilling floormen. The rig was donated by the Oilwell Drilling Contractors' Association to act as a practical classroom for future oil workers. This is just one phase of the program offered by the Vocational Education Division which also includes training in such varied occupations as heavy equipment operator, nursing orderly, survey assistant and road builder, along with English language classes for new Canadians in industry.

Any employer in Alberta establishing a pension plan for his company has a 50-50 chance of being assisted by Walter Alward. Walter is one of the two Analysts in the Pensions Benefits Branch, Alberta Department of Labour. Any proposed pension plan must be checked by one of these two men to ensure that it meets the requirements of the Alberta Pensions Benefits Act. Once it has been approved, the plan may then be registered with the Branch and put into operation. Among the responsibilities of the Branch is to see that employees are fully informed as to the terms and provisions of the pension plan; to make sure pension money is paid in to provide the benefits promised, and to ensure that payments received are invested properly. Employees who have a complaint may take it to the Pension Benefits Branch, which also requires a report on all pension plans each year to make sure all proper payments have been made.

Oil Wives Hold Fashion Show

The monthly meeting of the Drayton Valley Oilwives was held Monday, October 21st, in the Cardium Room with lovely Hallowe'en decorations. A delicious supper was attended by 77 members and 13 guests. 12 new members have enrolled. The business meeting was chaired by Jeanette Miner, our 1st Vice-President, as President Kay Meraw and 2nd Vice-President Carol Gillis are away to an Oilwives Convention at Swift Current.

A delightful evening of entertainment was provided by a fashion show with clothes from Mar-Nels Ladies Wear and under the direction of Mrs. Mary Kublik and Mrs. Nellie Starman. The attractive models were: Marlene Samis, Lillian Hook, Marg Balen, Jeanette Vatter, Marilyn DesBrisay, Gloria Prociuk and Audrey Grieb. All members of the club. A special thanks goes to Eunice Lyle our capable commentator, and pianist Pat Jenkins. Also thanks to Lil Moody, Joan Erickson, Mary Polloway and Betty McGee who assisted.

The Harvest Hoedown dance and turkey supper held in October was a real success, and a grand time had by all along with a sell out crowd. Thanks to all who turned out.

Several girls have offered their services for the childrens Christmas show which will be held on November 30th, more about this next month.

Next month's executive meeting will be held on November 18th at the Cardium Room.

THE WHEN AND HOW OF PRESSING

1.) Before beginning to cut out, press your fabric and your pattern pieces. Accuracy is difficult with wrinkles.
2.) Each seam and dart line should be pressed before crossing it with another seam. This produces the smooth, non-bulky look.
3.) Remove pins before pressing-they can scratch the sole plate of your iron and leave impression in the fabric.
4.) Darts-Waist and shoulder darts (vertical one) should be pressed toward the center front or back. Bust and elbow darts (horizontal ones) should be pressed downwards. How? Press the darts on both sides, following the stitching line. Then steam press it in the correct direction, over a tailor's ham. Go from wide to narrow end of the dart. Steam helps shrink out fullness at the point. Paper under the dart helps prevent leaving an impression on the right side of the material.
5.) Seams- For open seams, press seam allowances together and then open. Use the point of your iron along the stitching line. For seams that go to one side, press open first, then to one side. As with darts, paper strips under the seam allowance prevents ridges.
6.) Hems-Prevent stretching and rippling by lifting the iron with each stroke. Press with the point of the iron toward the top of the skirt. Ease out extra fullness by machine basting 1/4 inch from the cut edge. Ease the excess evenly from seam to seam. Shrink fullness by steam pressing.
7.) Sleeves-Use a sleeve-board. Press the armhole seam allowances together and then into the sleeve. Trim the underarm seam allowance for a more comfortable fit.

Packers Ruled Out Football Play-off

"You can't play, your team is ineligible." That was what the Drayton Valley Packers were told on Sunday, October 13th after the team travelled to Kinsmen Park in Edmonton to play the Edmonton Eskimo Ladies Quarterback Bees in the semi-final of the Northern Section of the Edmonton City Bantam Football League.

The Huskie Athletic Association knew over two weeks ago that the Drayton team had six overage players. A detailed letter was forwarded to Mr. Doug Biggs, the Association's Bantam Football Co-ordinator, on this matter on Tuesday, October 1st, however, no answer was ever received.

At the last scheduled game in Edmonton on Sunday, October 6th, the Packer Coach, Bryan Crerar was told that the team members were acceptable and that the Packers would be playing the Bees in the Northern Section playoff the following Sunday.

Apparently someone in the city had a change of heart during the week, but nobody bothered letting the Drayton Valley management know where it stood. Yet the telephone lines seem to be in operation into Drayton Valley and the mail has been coming through on regular schedule.

Just why the team was kept in the dark on this subject is not known. But, it is likely that under the circumstances this is the last year that a team from Drayton Valley will be competing in the Edmonton City League.

It is just not feasible for a community of this size to meet the requirements for this league. Among other things it is an eighty per cent travel league as far as the Packers are concerned. And then travelling for nothing--it's just too much and time to call a halt to proceedings.

Auction Sale Raises $800

The Drayton Valley Rotary Club's annual auction sale held recently was a great success and raised in excess of $800, that will go back into community projects.

Club members expressed their thanks to all the people who helped make this sale a success by donating articles for auction.

Special thanks also were expressed by club president, Bob Mayhew to the auctioneer Wendy Sekura, Dennis Manning and Fred Bauman of M&R Trucking for use of trucks, and to Bud Wiseman of Huskie Traders for the use of storage space.

The mature, but laborious, fruits of labor are always slowly produced.

"Careers Fair" Designed To Assist Rural Students

A campaign designed to show students in rural areas the widening range of careers open to them is being organized by the Alberta Department of Education's Guidance Branch.

The program, called "Careers Fair", starts in January. The branch hopes to operate it over three years in all eight rural sections of the province, starting at Peace River.

"There is a misconception in rural areas that the only avenues open to students are university or drop-out. The aim of the program is to show students just what potential careers are open to them with vocational training," says Mr. Larry Ferguson, branch director.

The aim is to take 25 industries and show the students the many different opportunities available in industry.

The fair's coming to principal towns in each of the eight areas will be preceded by the circulation of publicity on the various careers to help students to make up their minds before the fair arrives.

Students at schools up to 100 miles away will converge on the fair where they will be able to browse through displays covering the 25 different industries and talk to people in the industry to find out what the job is really like.

More information, more reference books and advice to schools' career counsellors will follow the fair so that students will be able to make a definite decision on their future and what training they will need. Details on Government assistance available to students will also be given.

Fort Dentist Seeks Premiership

Dr. W.A. Buck, MLA for the Clover Bar constituency, is seeking the Alberta premiership. A dentist, Dr. Buck practices at Fort Saskatchewan. His platform includes creation of a new ministry of tourism and northern development, naming a senior minister responsible for the human resources branch of the government, and a senior minister responsible for physical resources development.

Hold Seed for Next Year

Alberta farmers are urged to hang on to any oats and barley from last year's crop that will make suitable seed for next year.

O.G. Bratvold, head of the provincial Field Crops Branch, reports that there will almost certainly be a shortage of seed oats, and probably barley as well, in central Alberta and part of the Peace River region A considerable proportion of the crop in both these areas has been so badly frozen that it will not germinate. In the southern part of the province where the grain quality is reasonably good, seed supplies are expected to be adequate.

Mr. Bratvold advises farmers who have no carry-over from last year to start looking around for seed as soon as possible. Anyone who waits until next spring is likely to find it very difficult indeed to pick up seed oats and barley and that the price is higher.

Mr. Bratvold also reminds farmers that they can expect germination deterioration in this year's grain if it is stored with a moisture level of over 16 percent.

What this country needs are some colleges that teach everything the students think they already know . . .
